EAGLE

WEST BABYLON HIGH SCHOOL
WEST BABYLON NEW YORK

In order to put together a resumé of enjoyable and well spent years at West Babylon, the editor and the staff of the 1961 Eagle have compiled a series of visual aids which will preserve the memories of our school life. We are proud therefore, to present this yearbook to the entire school.

At the same time, we have kept foremost in our minds the theme which motivated the structure of this yearbook — our changing school system. We have tried to show how the West Babylon of the past has been transformed into the West Babylon of the present. Examples of this modern era in which we live are the photographs which appear at the beginning of each section in the '61 Eagle. In contrast to the art work on these pages, they are indeed a new approach, and are striking in that they truly show the difference between the years that "were" and now are.

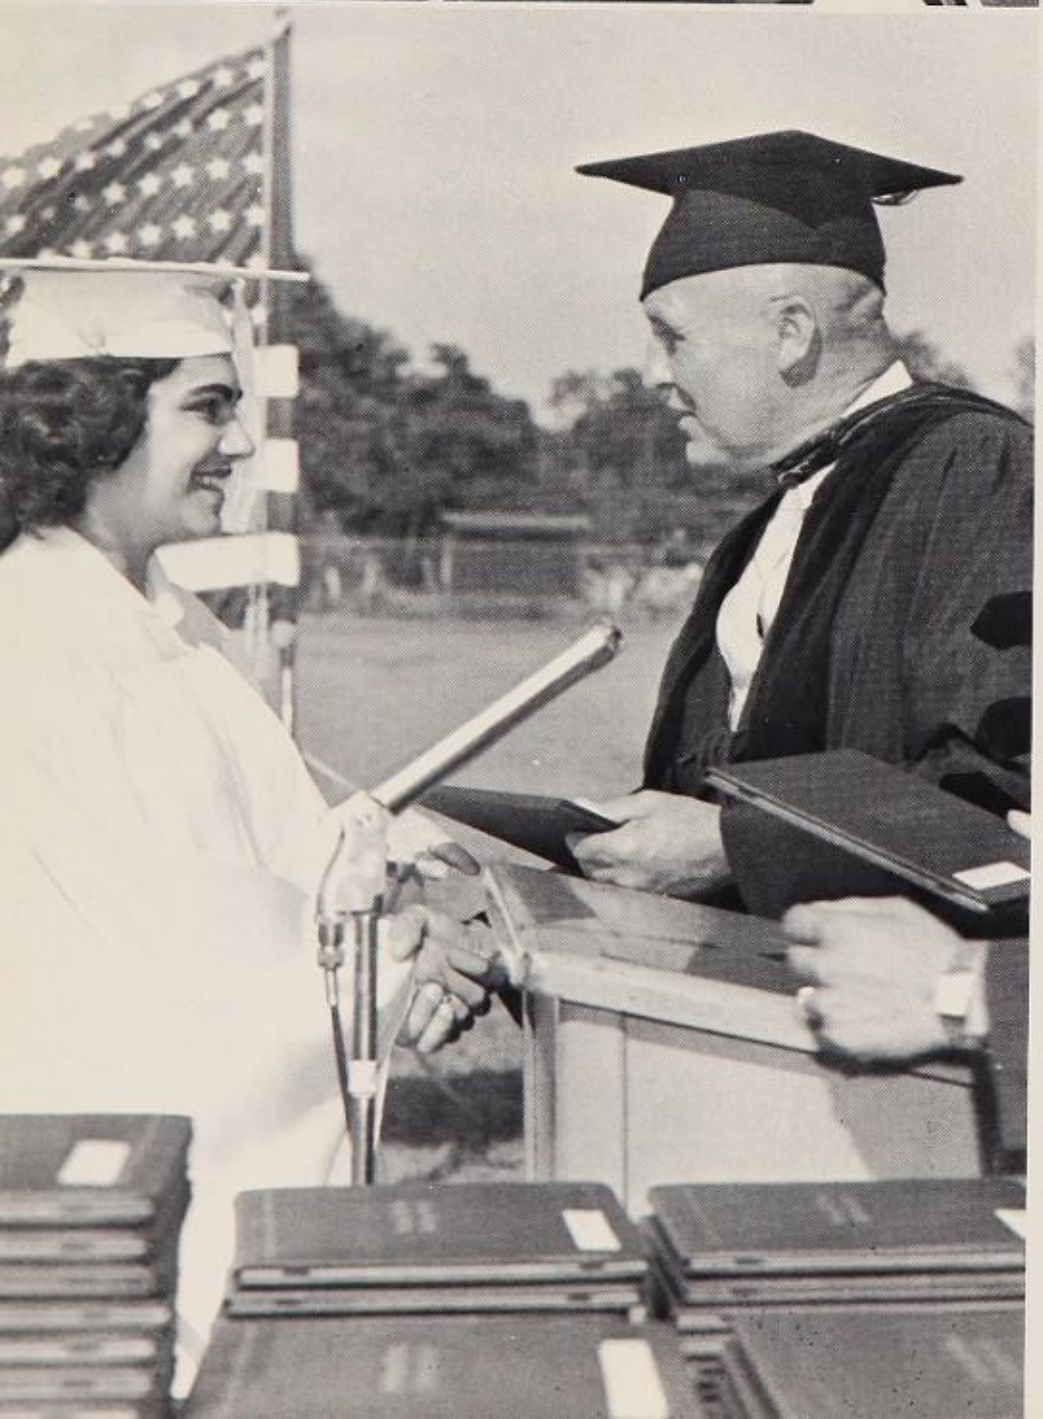
West Babylon has only recently been able to rejoice in the privilege of having its own high school building. Many of us remember the closeness of the "Ol' Main Building," and the double sessions at the junior high school. The reality of our own building did not become apparent until the early spring of 1960, when workmen rushed to meet a deadline. April 13, 1960 was a warm and truly vibrant day for us. The long caravan of yellow school buses initiated a feeling of complete satisfaction for having at last found a long sought for dream.

Mr. William McHenry, here speaking at the dedication ceremonies at the new high school building, has the especial respect and gratitude of all for his part in the realization of a dream.

Though many admire the face of our own building, only a leg-weary excursion throughout the maze of corridors can reveal the exactness of our educational facilities. Yes, we have come a long way. And perhaps it would do well, at this very point, to pause and reflect upon the energies expended within this community by men of good will so that its young citizens might be led, fully qualified, into the complexities of the world of today.

To applaud each name should be our desire; however, the names to be listed would be without end. Our heart-felt thanks go out to everyone. We simply ask that as the many pages are turned and the words digested and the photographs remembered that we never forget what has been done for us by West Babylon.



Mr. Van Brunt proudly presents her diploma to Angela Frangipani, a member of the class of 1960, which was the first group to be graduated from the new high school building.

'61 Eagle Boasts Several Firsts

Tony Milidantri may be somewhat prejudiced as he shows Arlene Walbroehl a good picture; he and Fred Johnson furnished many of the informal shots for the yearbook. Arlene's job was to identify the pictures.

Lorraine Marfgraf

A well-earned feeling of pride is shared by all those who have given their long hours of work and patience in putting together a yearbook that is in several ways, the first of its kind at West Babylon.

This year's Eagle has a custom cover embossed from a special cut die. The design for the cover was reproduced from a picture presented to the school by the L. G. Balfour Company.

Also a "first" for 1961, the Eagle has a two-page spread of full color. As a result of a new process developed by the American Yearbook Company, it is now possible to include full color in high school yearbooks, whereas previously the cost was prohibitive.

The 1961 Eagle is truly a yearbook to be proud of.

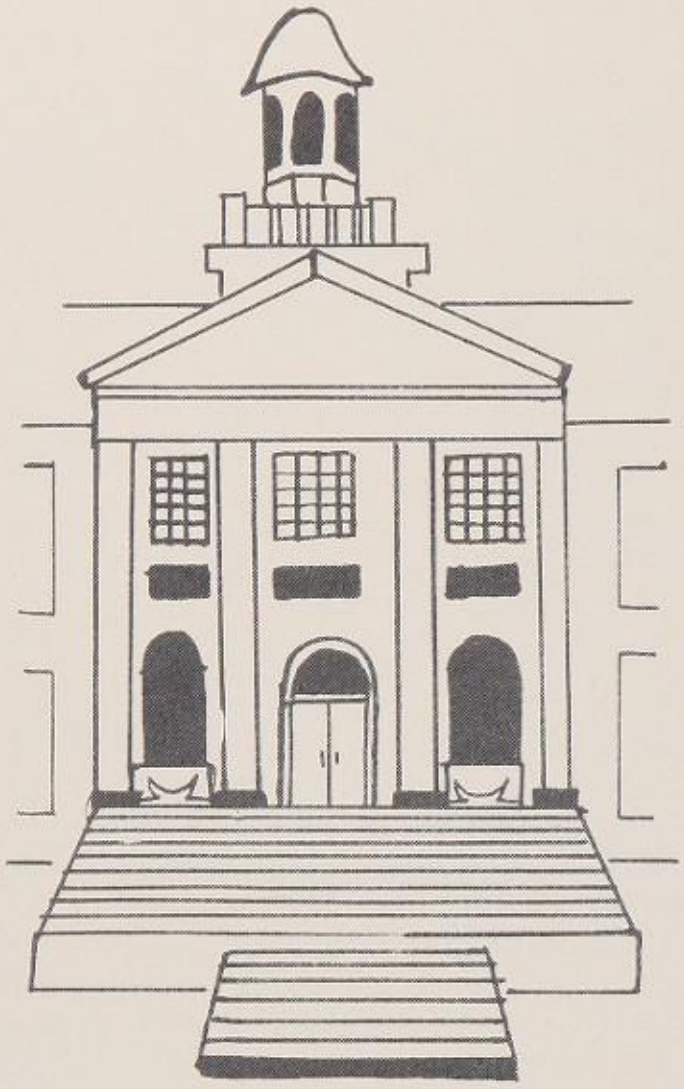
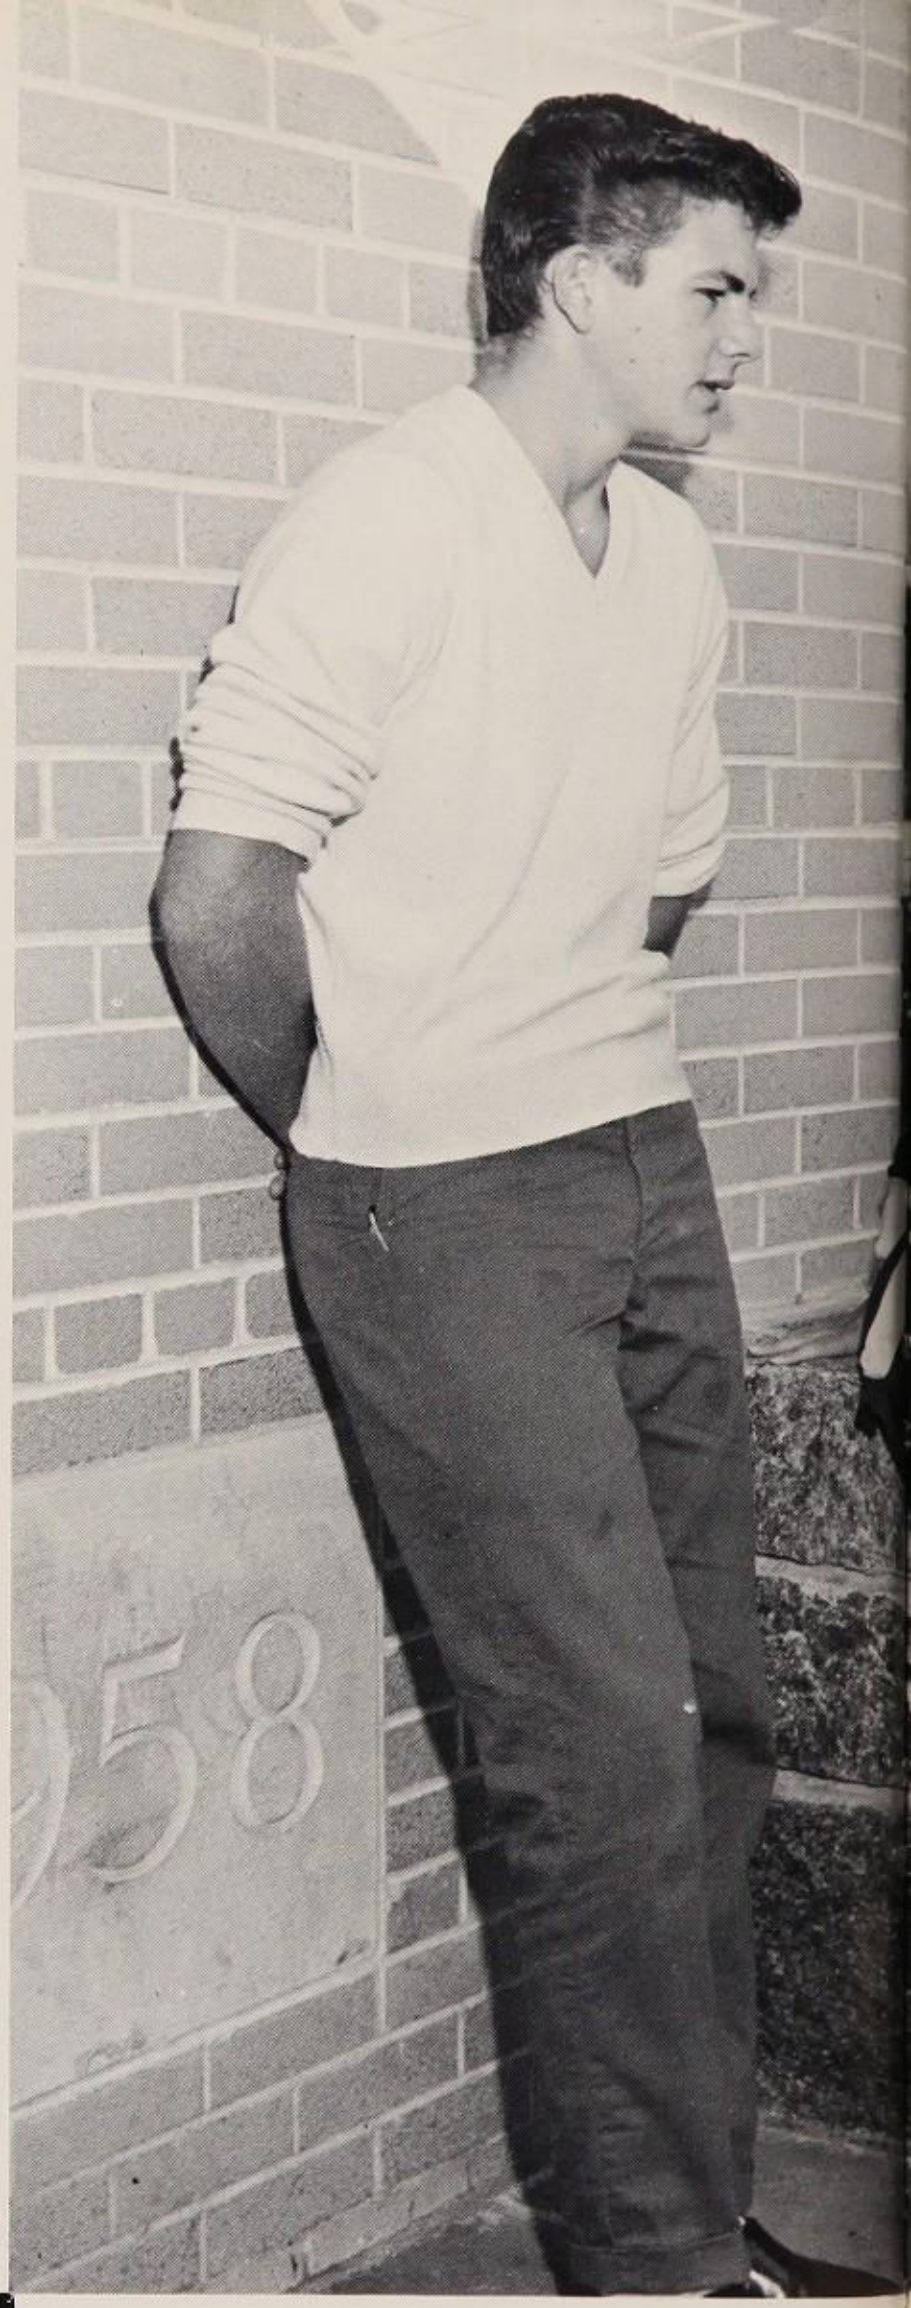
Janet Litwa Elected Senior Queen

Initiated last year for the purpose of raising additional funds for the yearbook, the senior queen contest was accepted so well by everyone, that it was decided to hold it again this year, not only to help publish the yearbook but also to give some lucky girl the opportunity to experience the honor of being elected queen.

This year's candidates were nominated by a committee of nine students and faculty members on the basis of general appearance, service to class and school, talent, and scholarship. All of these attractive girls are well deserving of having been selected candidates and any one could have reigned with grace and dignity.

Seated on the sofa in the luxurious reception room of the Huntington Town House are candidates Judy Hoernel, Janet Sheridan, Janet Litwa, and Linda Greene. In front of the sofa are Elaine Forand and Pat Walsh.





SENIORS

A Salute to . . .

Sports enthusiasts Janet Sheridan and Gerry Giesler admire Lenny Sears' basketball trophy as he proudly looks on.

Musically inclined Richie Konig and Dan Nagengast talk over a probable selection for a coming assembly.

. . . Scoring Seniors

Eagle Echoes editor, Trudy Gunst, looks on as Elaine Forand, editor of the '61 Eagle, searches through some photographs, hoping to find one that might be compatible to both the newspaper and the yearbook.

Studying and taking notes to maintain their high averages, seniors Ralph Jansen, Eric Kraft and Ginny Jones often spend their spare hours in the library.

Pleased by the result of many hours spent in making these unusual paper sculptures are Senior art students Linda Greene, Bob De Soto, Donald Birch, and Eddie Ozeck.

"Cheaper . . . " Features Canine Actor

"Cheaper by the Dozen" is a three act play based on the real-life experiences of the Gilbreth children in relation to their father, who was an effiency expert.

Beautifully done by a most enthusiastic cast, the play was well-received by the audience, who found it not only humorous but touched with real-life pathos for contrast.

The parts of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreth were most difficult, but a really excellent bit of portraying was done by Anthony Milidantri and Arlene Calabria. They were ably supported by a fine cast.

One character which must be mentioned had no lines, but made several very effective entrances. This was the dog owned by the Gilbreth children — a pup that never failed to "hound" father, who disliked all dogs in general and this one in particular. The audience particularly enjoyed this bit of realism.

While father Tony Milidantri seems appalled that his daughter Judy Hoernel would consider wearing "Teddies," other members of the Gilbreth family — Arlene Walbroehl, Don Birch, Pete Dallara, Joe LoPiccolo, and Linda Greene — look on with amusement.

Father, an efficiency expert, demonstrates to 5/13 of his brood how to take a bath without any waste motions. Pete Dallara makes sure the temperature of the bath water is just right.

Older sister and father look on in disbelief as teacher Janet Sheridan accuses Judy Hoernel of cheating on an aptitude test on which her skipping a grade at school depends.

Gold Team Salutes Hawaii

Cathy Wilson

"Hawaii" and "Broadway Hits," themes of the Blue and Gold Teams respectively, provided an exciting background for the sixth annual sports night presented by the girls' physical education department.

Demonstrating their achievements to their parents and friends, the participants competed this year in team entrance, cage ball, volleyball, basketball, relays, marching, calisthentics, and modern dance. Also on the program were a tumbling and apparatus demonstration, a free calisthentics demonstration, and the Leaders Club Finale.

The competitive events were judged on a point basis by a panel of invited impartial guests. With each team putting forth its very best efforts under the leadership of Elaine Nielsen, Gold captain, and Sheila Zuk, Blue captain, the score was close but decisive — Gold 71 — Blue 65.

The colorful costumes worn by our own West Babylon wahinis help to carry through the theme "Hawaii," chosen by the Blue Team. FRONT ROW: June Larberg, Selma Farrell, Lynn Miller, Grace Beinert, Dolores Romano, and Jackie Portuese. SECOND ROW: Gail Avans, Carol O'Bremski, Margaret Blum, Geraldine Welch, Michele Meurer, Michele Bourque, Eileen Armour, and Pam Haller.

The Gold Team appears elated to hear of their victory in the entrance competition. Janet Litwa, carrying the winning pennant, circles the gym floor as the Gold Team cheers her on.

Highlight of the evening was the announcement of the 1960 Queen of Sports, Elaine Nielsen, who received a majority of all the votes cast by the participating girls.

After her crowning, the Girls' Leaders Club, sponsors of the program, climaxed the evening with a finale based on the Olympics, the members representing various types of Olympic sports. The theme expressed was that although world peace does not always exist, sportsmanship and fair play are prevalent among nations at the Olympic games.

Special thanks for a most entertaining evening go to the girls' very capable instructors, Mrs. Dolores Shelfo and Mrs. Joan Fiorillo.

Spruced and sparkling in their Sunday best are these Gold "Lil' Abner" players. SEATED are Dot Martinek, Grace Salerno, Connie Haeseker, Roseann Gannone and Connie Raub. STANDING are Barbara Buerkel, Libby Bailey, Arlene Walbroehl, Vivian D'Onofrio, Lina Salerno, Alice Hansen, Phyllis Verderosa, Dalsha Morris, Carol Smigiel, Barbara Forman, Elaine Nielsen and Janice Rushing.

Seniors Present First Mystery

Home Sweet Homicide, the first "Who-Dun-It" ever produced by a West Babylon Senior Class, was a hit on all counts — performance; new outdoor set, complete with live shrubbery; and program, with its cover by Tony Angelora.

The story concerned three youngsters whose mother was not only a mystery writer but an attractive widow as well. The children wanted to see her acquire fame — and a husband — by solving a real-life mystery.

Conveniently, a murder was committed in the house next door, and the youngsters set about finding the murderer and achieved both their purposes in the process.

Kid brother Don Birch's resentment of being ordered around by older sister Judy Hoernel takes on a violent form. Big sister Linda Greene's intervention will bring peace and quiet to the Carstairs home once more — for about ten minutes.

Queen Janet with proud escort, Eric Kraft.

Seniors Play Cupid at St. Valentine's Formal

Though the weather outside was stormy, there were happy goings-on inside as the third annual Sweetheart Ball was presented by the Class of '61. Adding to this warm and friendly atmosphere was the music of The Royalaires and the entertainment provided by The Tunisians.

Climaxing the night was the crowning of the Senior Queen. The suspense which had been growing for several months finally came to an end with the revelation that Janet Litwa would occupy the throne. The new queen was presented with a bouquet of beautiful long-stemmed red roses and a sparkling crown. The other candidates also received tiaras and old fashioned bouquets of red carnations.

The attractive surroundings, the friendly couples, and the lively music made the ball a memorable experience for all.

Long months of wondering and waiting ended finally for six deserving senior girls with the crowning of Queen Janet, here surrounded by Linda Greene, Pat Walsh, Elaine Forand, Judy Hoernel, and Janet Sheridan.

Juniors, too, enjoyed dancing to the music of The Royalaires.

Colorful Japan was successfully recreated when the West Babylon High School Chorus, under the direction of Miss Shirley LeVan, presented this year Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado." A first in the history of West Babylon High School, the operetta was a success not only because of the excellence of the performers, but the combined efforts of those who worked on its production.

Contributing to the color of the production were the set and costumes, created by the industrial arts, art, and home ec departments. Mrs. Norrine Emmett's achievements in transforming American students into sloe-eyed beauties were particularly notable.

ORGANIZATIONS

The precision marching of the band and the smooth twirling of the majorettes under the supervision of Mr. De Iulio help entertain the spectators at home games.

Juniors Admit . . . "Father Knows Best"

Proceeds from the annual magazine drive, traditionally reserved for the junior class, made a sizeable addition to '62's treasury. A pizza party was given to the homeroom with the best sales record, that being 11-3. Many of the 286 Juniors also supported their class by purchasing blue and white junior hats.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Foley, the Juniors presented as their three-act play Father Knows Best. With the help of their class advisor, Mr. Ritacco, they held several cake sales and a dance. Only one more year to go, and the Class of '62 is looking forward to making it their best yet!

Junior class officers Sue Ott, treasurer, Mary Pachla, corresponding secretary, Tommy Kiritsis, vice-president, and Kitty Rienzo, recording secretary meet in the comfort of the Hospitality Room. President Jerry Collom and Mr. Albert Ritacco, advisor, were not present.

Class of '63

Sophs Partial to Roller Skating

Mr. Raymond Kearns, advisor, and sophomore class officers Geraldine Welch, secretary, Mary DeLucia, vice-president, Carol O'Bremski, treasurer, and James Meisenheimer, president plan the agenda of the next sophomore class meeting.

Mr. Kearns, advisor for the Class of '63, has good reason to be proud of his students. Realizing already the needs of their senior year, the Sophs came out on top this year by sponsoring several skating parties, each one a definite success. They also held monthly cake sales and sold blue and gold class buttons throughout the year. Following up a fabulous freshman year, '63 is well on the way to success.

Due to the crowded Student Council agenda, the freshman class — the largest in the history of West Babylon High School — has not had much of an opportunity to schedule activities. Nevertheless, it has become apparent that there are in the class many good workers, who contributed to the success of their cake sales and skating parties. The Class of '64 has a great deal of potential, and everyone will be looking for great things from them in the future.

Obliging the photographer for a moment are the members of the executive board of the Freshman Council and their advisor — Ralph Rienzo, president, Frank Catalanotto, vice-president, Rosie Rinaldi, secretary, Phil Caputo, treasurer, and Mr. Salvatore Mangone.

Student Council Sponsors . . .

Under the supervision of Mr. Payne and its officers — Eric Kraft, president, Michael Kane, vice-president, Julie Gomez, secretary, and Jean Manzi, treasurer, Student Council this year has had an unusually busy schedule. It can proudly boast of a successful first in the history of West Babylon High School. In order to promote top school spirit for the last game of the football season, a non-league tilt with arch-rival Babylon, the Council organized a motorcade from W.B.H.S. to the Babylon field. This proved a big boost to morale and was well received by all.

At Christmas time, Student Council collected money from the student body and bought gifts for a needy family. It is also engaged in raising money for the foreign student fund.

During the winter season, it sponsored a Roaring Twenties Dance to raise money for an Alumni Dance, which was held during Easter vacation. It was open to past graduating classes and this year's senior class. The dance proved to be a wonderful opportunity for renewing old friendships and making new ones.

All in all, the Council has accomplished much in the line of bringing our students together in educational and social activities.

One of the most successful events of the year was the motorcade to the Babylon football game sponsored by Student Council. Atop Dave Van Brunt's station wagon Kurt Sautter, Bob Segura, Paul Rossitto, and Billy Bell provided the enthusiastic participants with some music? Mrs. Shelfo followed Dave's overloaded car with the varsity cheerleaders.

. . . Alumni Dance and Motorcade

Loyal supporters, even if they did have to walk. The buttons, shakers, and banners displayed were an indication of the boundless school spirit of these West Babylon students.

English Honor Society Publishes Magazine

Its literary magazine, Tempo, was the most important work of the English Honor Society this year. A collection of the best poems and stories written by the members, it revealed a side never before seen of many of the contributors. All activities of the organization were under the direction of Mrs. Langford and officers V. Jones, president, P. Verderosa, vice-president, J. Litwa, secretary, and G. Adam, treasurer.

FRONT ROW: M. DuBord, P. Verderosa, G. Jones, J. Litwa, and G. Adam. SECOND ROW: M. McCahill, Mrs. Langford, L. Miller, F. Saia, M. Pachla, N. Rule, V. Kaider, B. Forman, M. Kane, A. Courtney, G. Mayer, B. Fogarty, E. Kraft, R. Nagengast, I. Donowa, and G. Avans.

Eagle Echoes Takes New Format

Spot-checking a finished page of the Christmas issue of Eagle Echoes, Mr. Payne finds something amusing to show to Mr. Gunsalus, Danny Jones, and Wally Van Meter, while Trudy Gunst takes the job a little more seriously.

The many hours of hard work and planning that went into every copy of Eagle Echoes have proved to be hours that were very profitably spent. Largely due to the efforts of Trudy Gunst, editor-in-chief, and Mr. Payne, its advisor, the students at West Babylon have found the newspaper to be an excellent review of past activities and an exciting bulletin of things to come.

The new process by which it is printed, offset lithography, has made the printing of the newspaper less expensive, because most of the work is done right here at W.B.H.S. Both staff and readers are particularly grateful to Mr. Gunsalus, graphic arts instructor, for his help.

Girls' Leaders Club Joined by Male Counterpart

In the Christmas spirit of giving, the Leaders Club officers and their advisor wrap the last few presents that will be sent to the family which they adopted. The executive board includes Linda Greene, recording secretary, Pat Walsh, treasurer, Janet Sheridan, president, Phyllis Verderosa, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dolores Shelfo, advisor, and Janet Litwa, vice-president.

Membership in the Girls' Leaders Club, one of the most prominent organizations in the school, was made up this year of thirty-three girls, each contributing her best to the club and school.

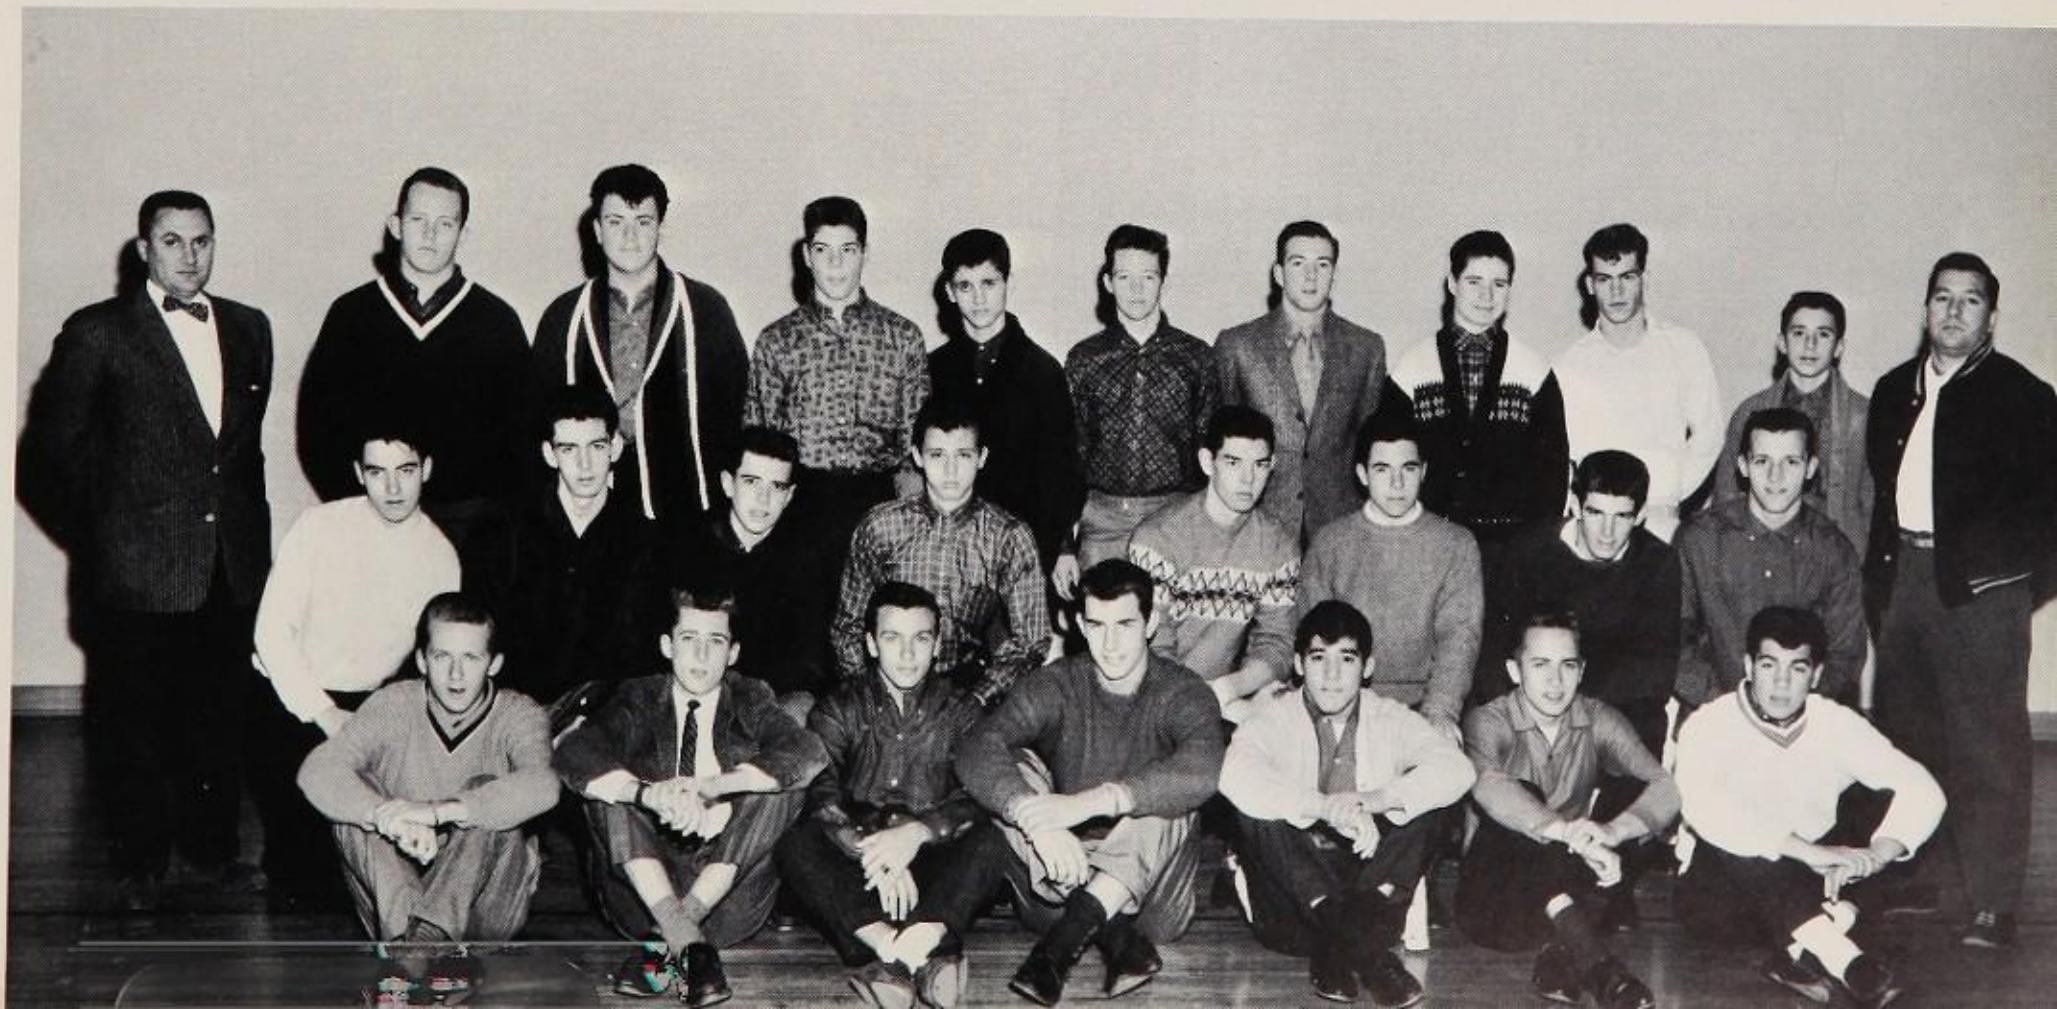
Besides assisting in all phases of physical education, the club sponsored its Annual Charity Dance, proceeds going to the Association for Retarded Children. At Thanksgiving, a basket containing the ingredients of a full course dinner was given to a needy family; and when Christmas time came, the girls brought in gifts for a deserving family.

The biggest event sponsored by the Girls' Leaders Club was the traditional Blue and Gold Sports Night, by far the most important all-girl activity in the school.

Math Club membership is made up of students in the accelerated math class, some of whom participate in the monthly meets of the Suffolk County Math League. Members include — FRONT ROW: J. Litwa, P. Walsh, treasurer, V. Jones, vice president, Mr. Clyde Payne, advisor, R. Jansen, president, G. Adam, secretary, and V. Kaider. SECOND ROW: S. Laino, D. Meray, M. Kane, E. Kraft, C. Ohlmiller, D. Kucij, L. Hendrickson, J. Halpin, D. Nagengast, R. Sawey, C. Ames, B. Fogarty, M. Murphy, F. Carney, N. Rule, G. Bourque, I. Donawa, and B. Redder.

Boys' Leaders Club is perhaps not so well known as the girls' organization but is certainly equally as important. Organized at the end of last year, its officers include Gerald Giesler, president, Phil Bassi, vice-president, David Van Brunt, secretary, and Michael Kelly, treasurer. Because of its newness, the club, under the supervision of Mr. DeLucca, has been limited in its activities. In the future we may expect to see it become an important organization.

FRONT ROW: F. Hall, D. Van Brunt, G. Giesler, L. Sears, G. Rivera, C. Ohlmiller, and P. Bassi. SECOND ROW: W. Lynch, B. Luke, D. Hubert, F. Calanatto. T. Connolly, J. Halpin, M. Kelly, and T. Kiritsis. THIRD ROW: Mr. Sciortino, H. LaGrassa, N. Capassano, V. Nello, J. Germano, R. Krumholz, G. Collom, M. Murphy, R. Nagengast, R. Rienzo, and Mr. De Lucca.



Innovations for Band and Chorus

Mr. De Iulio puts the band through its paces daily during activity period whenever the weather allows.

West Babylon can truly be proud of its high school band which this year has seen a tremendous improvement under the leadership of Mr. De Iulio.

During the football season the band marched out on the field at the commencement of each home game with a peppy, well-done fight song to put the crowds which filled the bleachers as well as the team in a "fight for victory" spirit. At half-times they displayed their ability not only to play good music, but also to do skillful precision marching.

The band also provided the student body with enjoyable entertainment at several assembly programs, the Christmas assembly performance being particularly notable. The members have mastered concert music, marches, and popular music as well. Highlight of the year for the music department was, of course, its annual spring concert, where the band performed admirably, climaxing a year of hard, but enjoyable, work.

FRONT ROW: J. Manzi, S. Pantelao, D. Baxter, and G. Cocovelli. SECOND ROW: E. Driscoll, L. Danilevics, V. Marino, J. Milazzo, R. Konig, J. Kanellos, D. Nagengast, J. Sindelback, E. Steppe, B. This year, under the direction of Miss Shirley Le Van, the Senior High Chorus presented a first in the West Babylon school system. Their operetta, The Mikado by Gilbert and Sullivan, showed that high school amateurs can be very entertaining. The proceeds from the performance went into the chorus gown fund. Instead of having their cast party after the show, they postponed it until Christmas and had a combination Christmas and cast party.

Along with the Senior High Chorus, the Girls' Chorus, the Ninth Grade Chorus, and the Boys' Chorus performed throughout the year at various assemblies, and their spring concert added a tuneful touch to the change of seasons. The annual chorus picnic was a pleasant farewell for the many Seniors who left chorus.

Chorus officers, June Larberg, vice-president, Linda Greene, president, Marilou Ketcham, secretary, and Terry Marino, treasurer, accompanied by their advisor, Miss Shirley Le Van, run through a new song they plan to use in the Spring Concert.

Season Climaxed by 6-0 Win Over Babylon

Despite the problem of having only three returning varsity veterans, the 1960 Eagles, under the direction of Coach Roger (Dutch) Ouderkirk and Assistant Coaches Wilensky and O'Brien, went on to have a successful season. The Eagles combined a great deal of spirit, hustle and fight to compile a fine record of 4 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie.

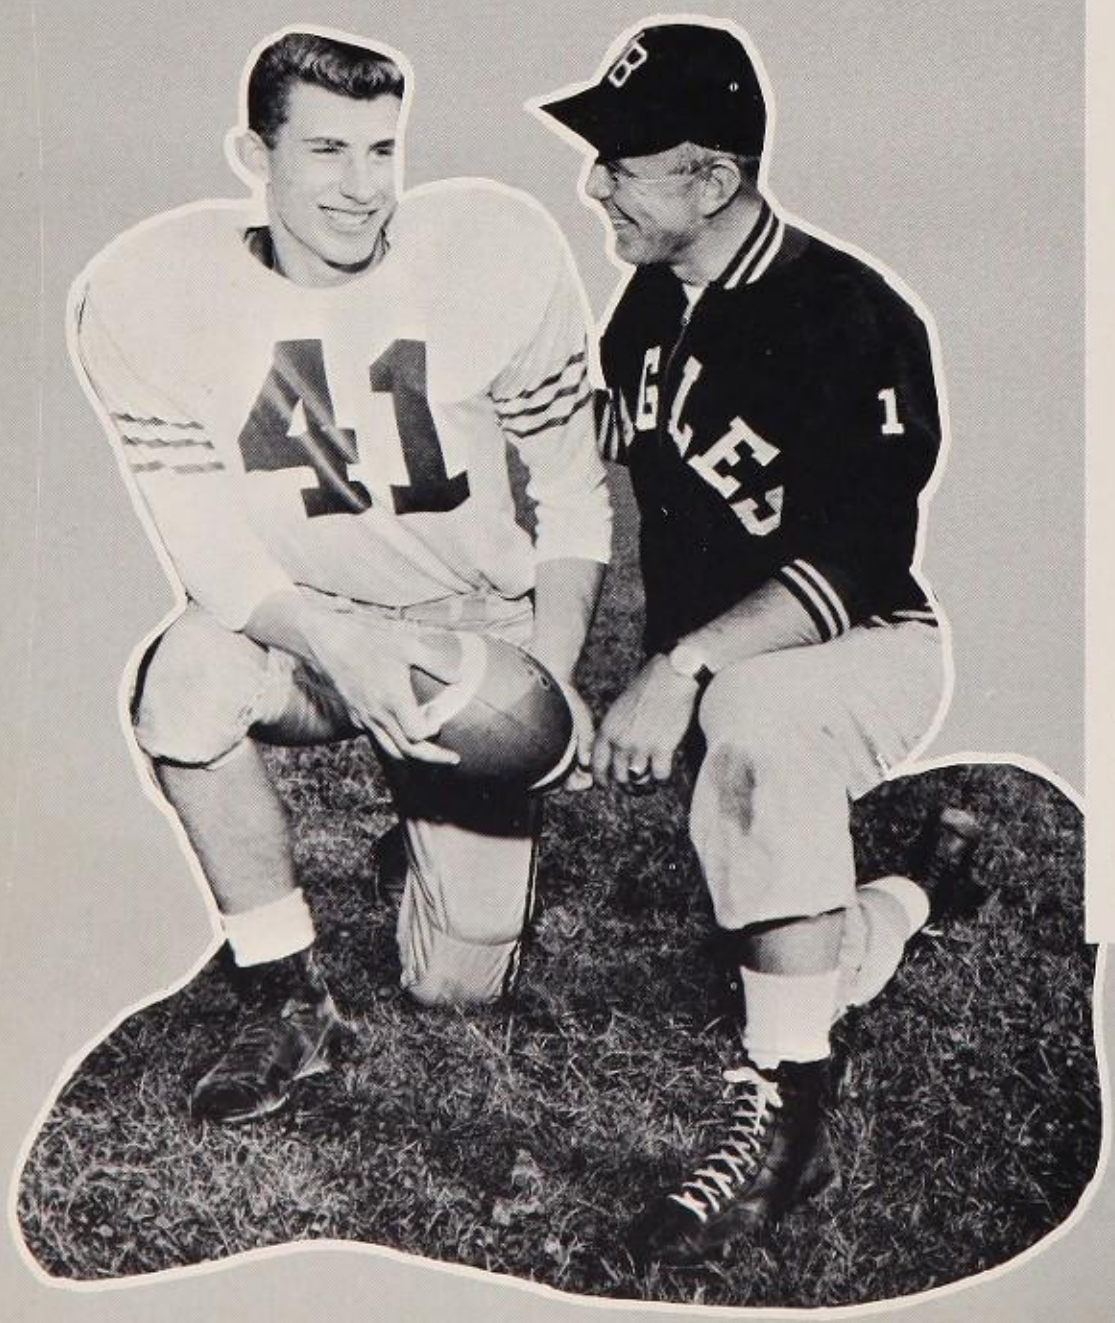
Highlights:

EAGLES — West Islip — Great team spirit evident as Eagles came from behind for an exciting 1-point victory. The running of Henry Zukowski and John Salvaggio sparked the team. Also a major factor in the victory, the great line-play of Len Sears.

EAGLES — Patchogue — The play of the defensive line and a key pass interception by Phil Bassi, together with the great all-around play of Mike Kelly, told the story in this victory.

EAGLES — Lindenhurst — The block of a Lindenhurst punt by Len Sears, setting up the tying touchdown, was the high-point of a clean, hard-fought game played under the lights in a deep fog.

EAGLES — Bay Shore — Bay Shore's all-around speed proved too much for the Eagles as they suffered their first loss.



Coach Ouderkirk gives Lenny (Shoes) Sears some pointers which later helped the Eagle Captain become the first winner of the Carl Hansen Award as the outstanding football player in Suffolk County. Also among Lenny's honors this year were places on the All-Star teams of the Lo[illegible]day, and The Ne[illegible]

Clockwise from top center: Phil Bassi, Gerry Rivera, John Salvaggio, Warren Kelly, Lenny Sears, Pete Marx, Don Engel, Nels Pontillo, Tom Kiritsis, Jeff Fallon, Mike Kelly, and Henry Zukowski. Center: Coaches Wilensky, Ouderkirk, and O'Brien.

EAGLES — Sayville — Displaying a spirited, superior defense, the Eagles bounced back to overcome a much heavier line and a muddy field. John Salvaggio and Richie Utter lead the offense, with great drive and hustle exhibited on every play.

EAGLES — Amityville — Eagle comeback in second half fell short as early Amityville lead prevailed. The passing of Phil Bassi and the receiving of Jeff Fallon and Warren Kelly were outstanding.

EAGLES — Copiague — The overall speed of the Copiague backfield proved the downfall of the Eagles. Line play of Len Sears again tremendous.

EAGLES — Babylon — Great Eagle spirit evident once again. Outstanding performance from quarterback Phil Bassi, despite a broken ankle. Only score of the game came on a pass from Bassi to Fallon and then a lateral to Henry Zukowski who sprinted 30 yards for the touchdown.

Seven Soccer Eagles Make All Star Teams

Entering its second year of varsity competition, the soccer team, coached by Mr. John Sciortino, began with an inspiring streak of four victories. This streak was finally stopped by Brentwood by a score of 5 to 3, though the Eagle booters out-played and out-fought their opponents. Another heartbreaking defeat followed at the hands of West Islip. The Eagles finished the season with a record of 5 won, 5 lost and 1 tied.

Representing West Babylon on the Suffolk County All-Star Teams were Norbert Reich (Suffolk County's top scorer with 34 points), Linhard Reich, Vito Bonventre, Gerry Giesler, Richie DePuy, Dave Sheridan, and Harold Sivertsen.

The junior varsity, under the direction of Coach Young, compiled a tremendous record of 5 won, 1 lost and 1 tied. Mike Murphy, Jerry Toner and Paul Mason were outstanding in establishing this record.

Basketball Eagles Score In League Competition

Hindered by early season injuries, the West Babylon varsity basketball team came on strong to win 8 out of its last 10 games to finish the season with a record of 10 wins and 8 losses. In A-2 league competition the Eagles posted a won 6 lost 4 record, good enough for a third place finish and only one game away from a playoff berth.

Coach Hemendinger's Varsity Eagles were paced this year by the rebounding of Len Sears and Jeff Fallon and the prolific scoring of Jeff Fallon and little Bob McFadden.

As was the case this year, next year's team will consist mostly of experienced veterans, as only three members will be lost via graduation. This will leave twelve returning lettermen to compete in what is anticipated to be a highly successful season next year.

After a year of junior varsity competition, the West Babylon wrestlers this season entered their first year of varsity competition. Although on the whole the season was not a successful one, there were some outstanding wrestlers on the varsity and junior varsity squads.

Gerry Rivera and Frank Mangialiano, this year's co-captains, provided much of the excitement in their matches as they both compiled fine records. Gerry finished with a 10—5—1 record, while Frank battled to a tie with a previously 3-year-undefeated wrestler from Kings Park. Other outstanding wrestlers on this young squad were Larry Barraga (10—6—1) and Willie Rivera, who reached the League I semi-finals.

West Babylon, one of the few high schools on Long Island which can boast of including fencing in its athletic agenda, this year continued fencing on an even larger scale. Mr. Fabregas, the originator of fencing at West Babylon, saw his team through a fairly successful season, though they were usually facing much more experienced opponents.

Members of this year's team included Dan Nagengast, Santi Buscemi, Dave Becker, Gerry Caccavale, Lindhardt Reich, Alan Berry, Linda Werner, Helga Spitko, and Flo Anderson.

Starting the '61 season with a 5—0 victory over West Islip, the intramural bowling team, last year's League I champs, recorded wins over Port Jefferson, South Huntington, Northport, and Huntington, losing only to North Babylon and West Islip. New records were set this year as the team compiled an 830 team average, a 915 high team game, and a 2643 high team series.

Individual stars have also emerged — Ricky Sawey with a 173 average and a high series of 617 and Charlie Ames with a high game of 242. Jake Brouillard rolled a 600 series, besting, along with Ricky Sawey, the school record.

Veterans Return to Diamond

Coach DeLucca illustrates proper batting technique to varsity players Richie Kromholz, Kurt Sautter, Bob McFadden, Gerry Giesler, Pete Krumholz, Phil Bassi and John Pape.

It is everyone's hope here in West Babylon that the 1961 baseball season will be the "next year" that we have talked about and hoped for so often. The fact that this year's team will consist of every member from last year's is encouraging, and such veterans as Chuck Ohlmiller, Richie DePuy, Phil Bassi and Gerry Giesler, who are returning from their third season, should help considerably.

Coach DeLucca is not letting last year's disappointing record sway his prediction that this will be "the year" for West Babylon in baseball.

The team, last year, finished last in the A-2 League, in which they will compete this year with hopes of bringing a championship to West Babylon. The important base hit or the big fielding play which was so often missing in the past should occur much more often this season with the experience gained by every player from last year.

All in all, the Varsity Eagles will prove to be a much more potent ball club and a tough opponent for the powerful teams in Suffolk County.

FRONT ROW: W. Walls, C. Erkens, R. Barnet, E. Valeo, M. Smith, G. Ford, W. Elefterion, D. Quinn, and R. Konig. SECOND ROW: D. Kucij, K. Fernandez, D. Nagengast, M. Kane, E. Kraft, J. O'Donnell, R. McFadden, R. Segura, F. Hall, R. Miller, W. Derrow, and Coach DeLucca.

Under the guidance of Coach Robert Cary, the varsity track team made a fine showing in 1960. Led by a crack relay team, the distance running of Len Sears and Jeff Fallon, and the work of Jim Weita in the discus, West Babylon became well-known in Suffolk meets and was well-represented in both the league and county finals.

Although many of last year's standout performers have been lost through graduation, just as many have returned in an effort to continue the fine work started last year.

Though the cross country team did not often emerge the victor in its meets, it too had its standout performers. A fine job done by Kim Fernandez and also by Fred Hall in placing well in all the meets must be labeled as the highlight for this year's team.

Many of this year's runners will return for next year's cross country team. Coach DeLucca predicts a much more rewarding season for this reason.

The rousing school spirit of the student body at every football and basketball game is spurred on by nine cheerleaders — varsity, jayvee, or freshmen.

Each June the varsity and jayvee squads are chosen. The gym is filled with enthusiastic freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who must learn three cheers; then these ambitious girls are judged on jump, voice, appearance, personality, and group co-ordination.

At the end of each year, different awards are given to the girls depending on how long they have been cheering. The first year an embroidered felt megaphone is awarded; the second term a pin is given; the third time the cheerleader receives a silver megaphone on a chain; and the girl who has been leading cheers for four years becomes the owner of a trophy.

Gold Key Winners

To receive a gold key, the final award presented to Suffolk County girls by the Suffolk County Girls Athletic Association, a girl must have accumulated 600 points through participation in intramural and inter-scholastic athletics. The award symbolizes the key to life, since it is hoped that through participation in athletics the girls will have learned the qualities of sportsmanship and fair play that will help them make their lives more successful.

Their determination and drive made West Babylon's hockey team a formidable opponent to all challengers. This was evidenced by the scores of the intramural games, when the girls defeated Sachem 3—l and Northport 2—1, and tied North Babylon 1—1. Janet Sheridan, the captain of the team, did a good part of the scoring.

The girls fought even harder at the hockey playday to defeat Huntington and Northport. The last game against Copiague was close and resulted in a tie which ended the chance for the 1960 hockey banner. The team was coached exceptionally well by Mrs. Shelfo, and in many opinions was the finest team in Suffolk County.

W. B. Girls Win Basketball Banner

At the annual Suffolk County Girls' Athletic Association Playday held at South Huntington, the basketball honor team won all its games and brought home West Babylon's first basketball banner. This banner is a symbol of victory and is generally well-respected by all other girls' teams. It represents a season of hard work and achievement and deserves a place of honor in the W.B. gym.

In beating South Huntington 25—14, Northport 22—9, and North Babylon 15—10, two members of the team were chosen outstanding players — Janet Sheridan, who scored 31 points, and JoAnn Connor with 25 points.

Lilka Hall, Mary Jane McCahill, Janet Sheridan, Ronnie Maggio, Leslie Feuille, JoAnn Connor, and Michele Bourque.

When the words play your position are echoed in the girls' gym, it's fairly certain that volleyball season has begun. This year's intramural schedule was very heavy due to the fact that there were twelve teams; giving each team enough playing time was a difficult task. On the interscholastic level there were four teams, one for each class. The seniors' defeat of Copiague in November opened the way for a very fine season.

Under the direction of Mrs. Fiorillo, the volleyball playday team made an excellent showing, losing only one of its games. Co-captains Janet Sheridan and Ronnie Maggio received awards for being the most outstanding players. Since the team was made up of several undercalssmen, West Babylon should soon be bringing home the SCGAA volleyball banner.

Having had a good season, the softball playdav team returned home most successful with the coveted SCGAA softball banner for 1960. Janet Sheridan, the team's captain, pitched tremendously, giving up only one hit in a series of three games. Janet's batting power was also felt by West Babylon's opponents, but it was teamwork that contributed most to the victory.

When the 1961 team is formed, it will have to work hard and long to protect West Babylon's softball championship. Certainly this team will show the skill, courage, and determination that all of the girls' teams have shown. This, along with the outstanding sportsmanship and fair play evidenced by the girls, has helped to make West Babylon's teams feared and respected in league competition.

Wilensky Appointed Assistant Principal

With the steady growth of the community and the increase in the number of enrollments for each school year, it finally became a necessity for an aid to carry on efficiently the workings of the high school. Mr. Wilensky, former head of the English department, was chosen assistant principal. Having taught in the West Babylon system, he is an excellent choice for this important position. He has had the experience of associating with the students and members of the faculty, both old and new, thus enabling him to deal with the many problems occurring during the school year.

Another well-liked and respected member of the administration is the high school principal, Mr. Van Brunt. In addition to his duties as principal, he instructs special courses for college preparation and is Adjunct Professor of Educational Law at Hofstra College. He is the author of a six volume work, Eminent Domain, a recognized authoritative treatise on the subject.

The major project of West Babylon's busy supervising principal, Mr. Petersen, and the Board of Education this year was to introduce and gain approval for their plan to erect the new, much needed Tooker Avenue Elementary School.

Mrs. Ruth Robinson, Mrs. Arlene Lorenzen, Mrs. Evelyn Foley, and Mr. Peter Errick, chairman. Members of department not pictured — Mrs. Laura Langford, Mr. Paul O'Brien, Mrs. Natalie Emmett, and Miss Margaret Corcoran.

New Heads of Department . . .

West Babylon's English department is making every effort to meet the challenge presented by the increasing demand of colleges for better English usage. This is evident in the department's superior regents record.

New to the department are Mrs. Emmett, Mrs. Lorenzen, and Miss Corcoran. Mrs. Emmett received degrees from both Adelphi and New York University; Mrs. Lorenzen is a graduate of Albany College of Education, while Miss Corcoran is a graduate of St. Francis University.

Mr. Errick, the new department chairman, has recently completed a book titled, "The Sketchbook of Literature, American and World," designed for the use of high school seniors and college freshmen.

Mr. Errick is a firm believer that constant exposure to knowledge will produce the desired results. In line with this philosophy, he posts in his room well-known quotations and their sources, hoping that at regents time his faith will be rewarded.

Students in Mrs. Langford's English 12 class make use of English department audio material as they listen to a recording of Shakespeare's Hamlet.

. . . for English and Social Studies

Under the direction of Mr. Kalogerakos, new chairman of citizen education department, several new additions were introduced this year.

A course in advanced history was taught for the first time. The course includes historiography, sociology, political science, geo-politics and philosophy and is available upon the recommendation of their history teachers and the chairman of the department to students who have completed three years of history.

Miss Maher, new at West Babylon this year, taught History 3 and Citizenship Education 9.

Mrs. Botwinick quizzes students on their previous day's reading assignment in American history.

Using a relief globe, Mr. Fabregas indicates Pakistan to the students in his Citizen Education 9 class.

West Babylon's excellent science faculty includes — FRONT ROW: Mr. Donald Harrington, Miss Marie Eberhardt, Mr. Salvatore Mangone, chairman, and Mr. John Olsen. SECOND ROW: Mr. Claude Gange, Mr. Albert Ritacco, Mr. Fowler Hoernel, Mr. Richard Marcheschi, and Mr. James Gregory.

Directed by its new chairman, Mr. Mangone, the science department this year saw many changes.

After having completed a one-year scholarship at Syracuse University, Mr. Olsen returned to West Babylon to teach a new course in advanced biology. Students are able to take this course only if they are recommended by both the science and guidance departments. The major purpose of the course is to develop laboratory techniques.

Mr. Hoernel and Mr. Gange, new to West Babylon this year, are graduates of Dartmouth College and St. John's University respectively. Mr. Hoernel taught general science and health and Mr. Gange taught general science.

M. Harrington explains the procedure to be followed to chemistry students Chuck Ohlmiller, Suzanne Halpin, Alice Enders, and Virginia Jones.

Math 13, a new course combining aspects of analytic geometry, integral calculus, and differential calculus, was made available to West Babylon students this year. Upon completion of this course students may take Advanced Placement Examinations and receive college credit, depending upon their scores. Honor programs were also arranged in the math department for exceptional students taking Elementary Algebra and Math 10.

Mr. Taplin, Mr. Ford, Mr. Janis and Mr. Neill, new additions to the math faculty are graduates from The University of Alabama, Albany State University, City College of New York, and Ohio State University respectively.

Mr. Friedland doesn't appear to think much of Fred Hall's approach to a problem in advanced math.

Science and Math Departments Offer New Courses

FRONT ROW: Mrs. Marion Berls, Mr. Murray Friedland, chairman, and Mr. Clyde Payne. SECOND ROW: Mr. Samuel Janis, Mr. Owen Neill, Mr. Frank Taplin, and Mr. Charles Ford.

Language Lab Installed

Members of the language department are Mr. Richard Elms, Dr. Patrick Tarrant, chairman, and Mr. Frank Mulawka. Missing from the picture is Mr. Frank Figueroa.

French student Virginia Jones receives individual help in the lab from Dr. Tarrant. She and other senior language students serve as lab aids to teachers who are not mechanically minded.

As the world becomes smaller through improved and swifter means of transportation, the need for conversing and conveying ideas is very great. The language department is therefore utilizing a new oral method of teaching foreign languages, which has replaced the old system of teaching mainly grammar.

Another completely new addition to the language department is the language lab. The lab has thirty individual booths equipped with headphones and tape recorders. By listening to the voices of native speakers and then repeating after them, students improve their pronunciation.

Language instructors include: Dr. Tarrant (French), Mrs. Foley, (French), Mr. Figueroa (Spanish), Mrs. Robinson (French), Mr. Mulawka (Latin) and Mr. Elms (German, French). Mr. Mulawka, although he is not a new comer to West Babylon, is new to the language department this year.

West Babylon is very proud of Dr. Tarrant, chairman of the language department. After finishing six years of hard work, he received his doctorate degree from Columbia University this summer.

Making good use of the new language lab, Mr. Elms reads in German to his students, while they repeat what he has read. The whole process is recorded on tape, so that later they can listen to themselves and thereby improve their pronunciation.

School Store in Operation

Mr. Dailey reviews school store prices with Manager Jerry Collom and Assistant Manager Connie Haeseker.

This year the business department has grown to be one of the largest departments in West Babylon High School. It is conveniently located all on one floor with glass partitions between each room; thus, students become adapted to working in large offices.

Mr. Dailey, a newcomer to West Babylon's business department, supervises the school store and teaches classes in distributive education. Also new to the department are Miss Hische and Mrs. Obszarski. Miss Hische taught Office Practice 1, personal typing, and Introduction to Business, while Mrs. Obszarski taught Business English, Bookkeeping 1, and business law.

Because college work very often requires the student to be able to type, non-business majors were enabled to take a course in personal typing for one half-year. Another new course offered this year was stenograph, which trains steno-typists to prepare for careers as court stenographers.

Students in Mrs. West's shorthand and transcription class busily write as she dictates a letter.

Members of the competent business staff include — FRONT ROW: Mrs. Marjorie Brinkman, chairman, and Mrs. Mary Schlosser. SECOND ROW: Mr. Martine Thompson, Miss Doris Hishe, Mrs. Margaret Selleck, Mrs. Valerie Hanlon, Mrs. Marie West, and Mr. Ross Dailey.

Art department — Mr. Peter Savuto, Chairman, and Mr. Joseph Bucci.

Music department — Mr. Edward DeIulio, Chairman, and Miss Shirley LeVan.

New, Improved Facilities for . . .

Industrial arts department — Mr. Thomas Szoeke, Mr. William Holmes, chairman, Mr. Charles Showell, and Mr. William Gunsalus.

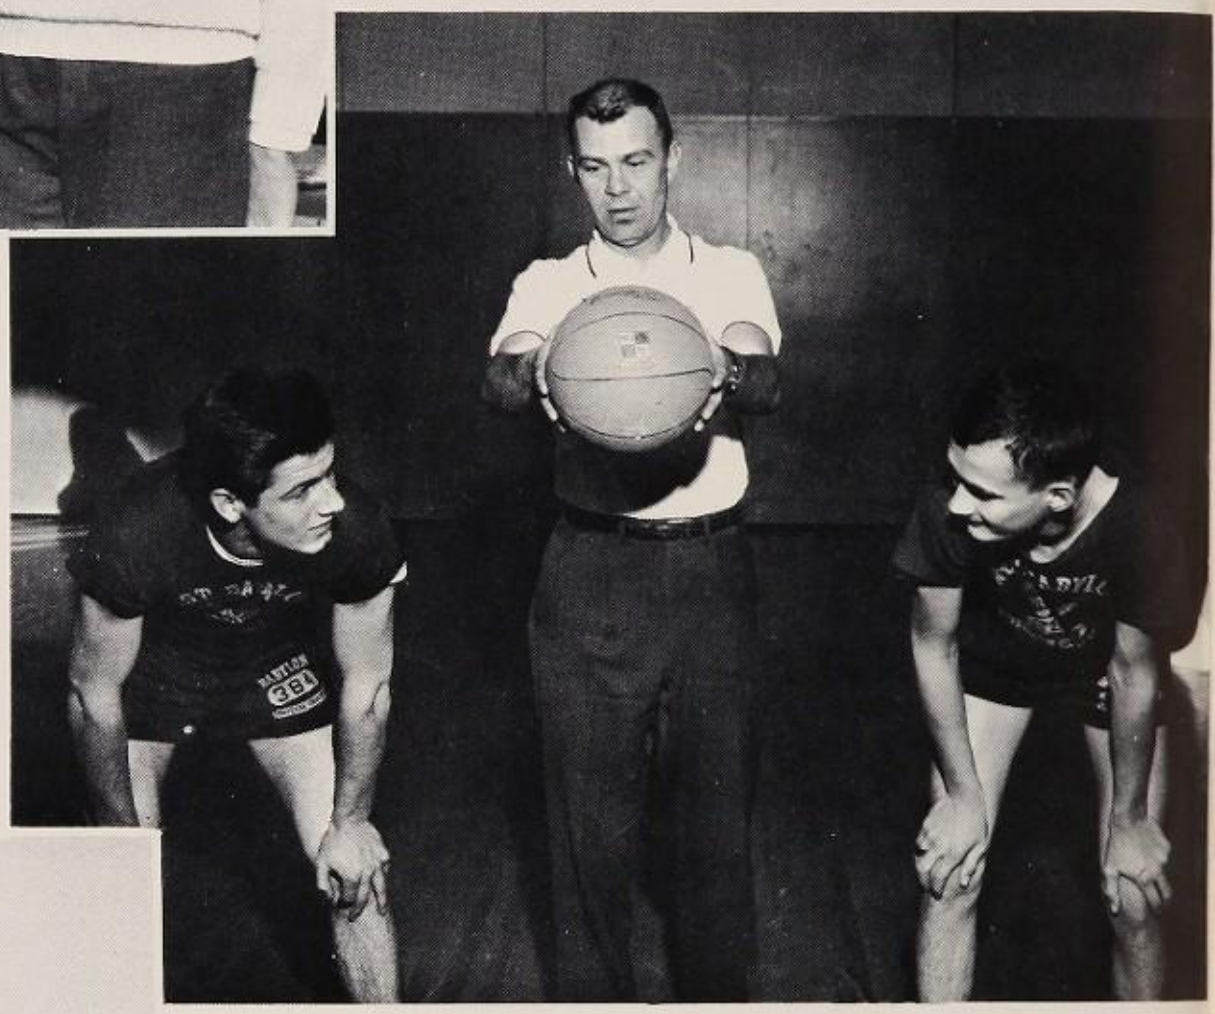
Home economics department — Mrs. Marie Balson and Mrs. Amy Powell, chairman.

. . . Art, Music, Shop, and Home Ec.

Working in the surroundings of the new improved facilities of the home economic department is now a joy for both teachers and students. Below left — Mrs. Powell with a sewing class and right — Mrs. Balson with a cooking class. Now the girls don't mind eating what they've cooked, since it can be served in the new hospitality room.

Quarters for Phys Ed

Physical education faculty — Mr. Joseph DeLucca, Mr. Roger Ouderkirk, Mr. Charles Pepe, chairman, Mrs. Joan Fiorillo, and Mrs. Dolores Shelfo.



Basketball seems to be the order of the day. Below, Mrs. Shelfo discusses a play with the aid of the magnetic board, and right, Mr. Ouderkirk prepares for a jump ball between Dennis Johnson and Norbert Reich.

Mrs. Kathleen O'Brien, chairman of the health department for the West Babylon school system.

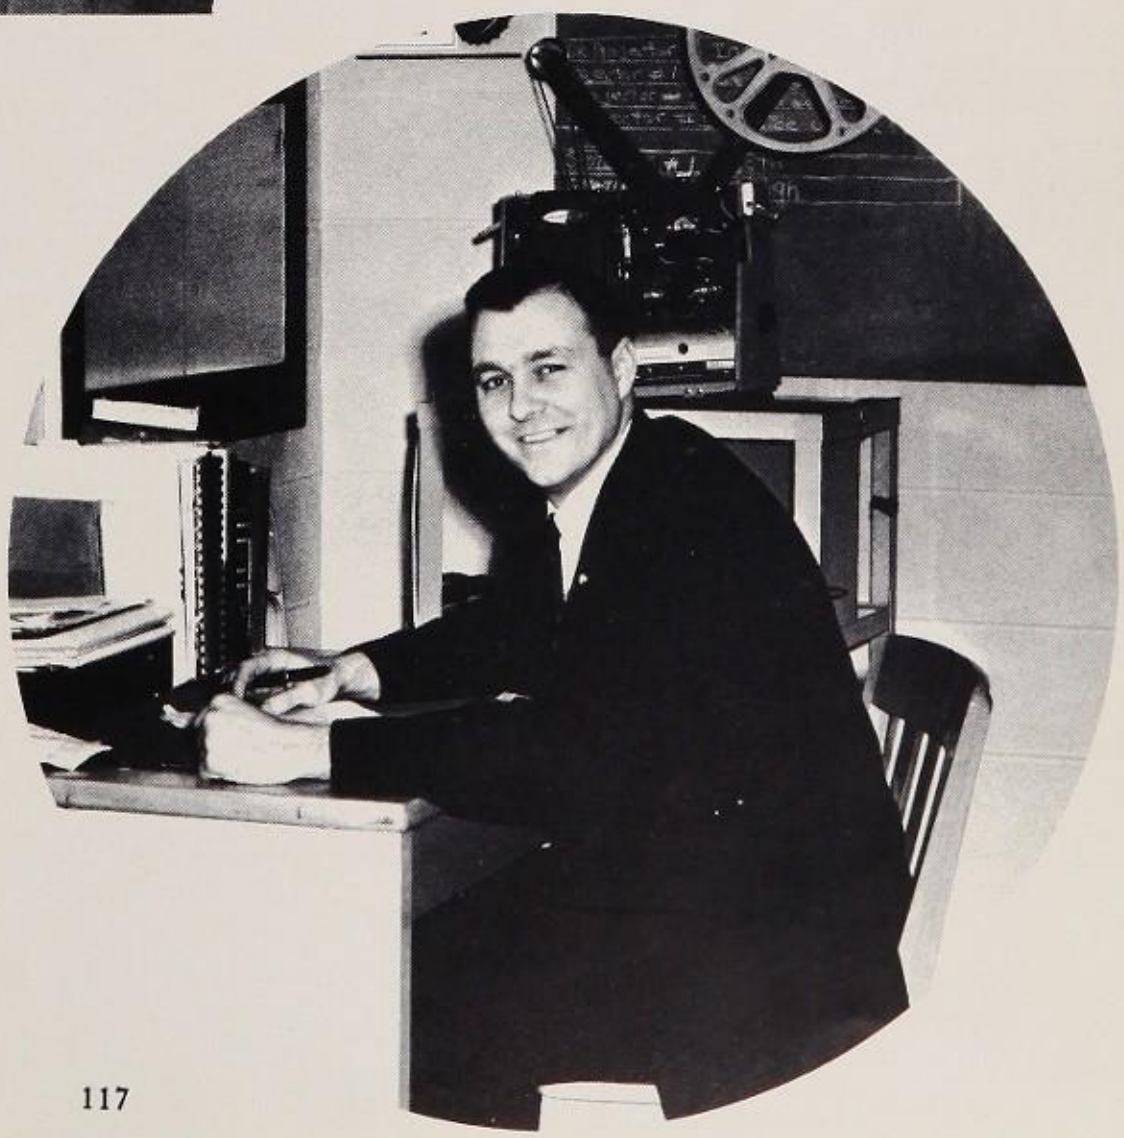
And Library Expanded

Guidance department's Mrs. Antonette Rugg, chairman, and Mr. Noel Hart many times accomplish the impossible by keeping happy not only the student and the teacher, but also the parent and the administrator. Not in picture, Mrs. Frances Schwartz.

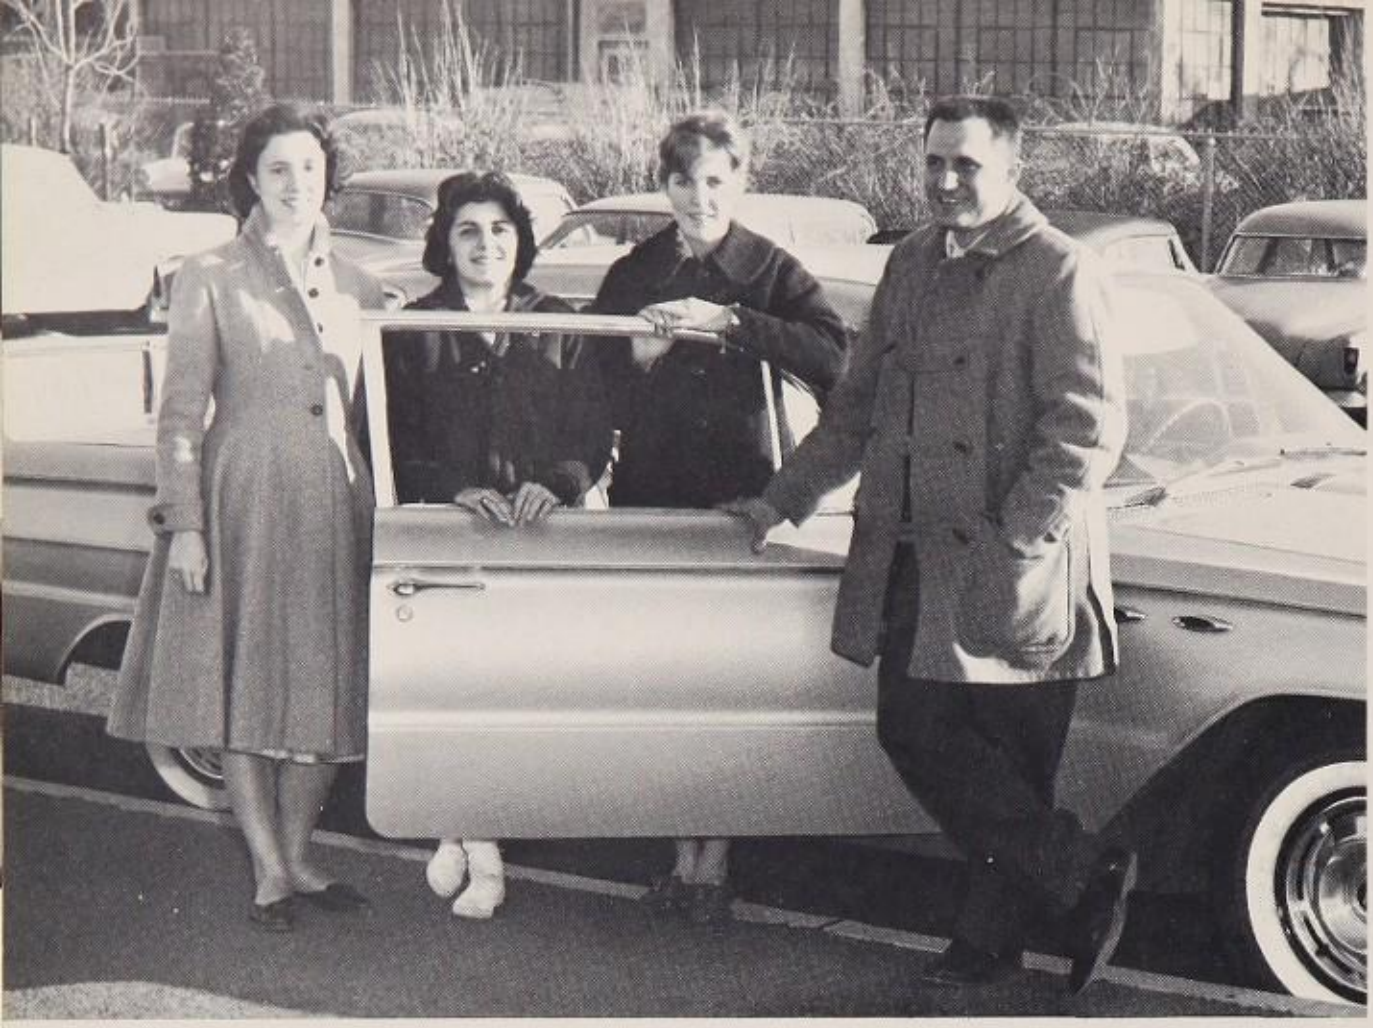
Mrs. Margaret Mach, librarian, and Mrs. Janet Miller, library clerk — always helpful to students and faculty members alike.

Mr. Frank Manzi, director of audio-visual aids for the West Babylon school system.

Mr. Joseph Mulcahy, attendance officer for the West Babylon school system.



Non-Teaching Personnel Tops!



Mr. John Sciortino, driver education instructor, has returned safely once again from a driving period with seniors Frances Commisso, Roseann Gannone, and Ann Marie Perron.

Something on the cover of one of Mrs. Mach's periodicals amuses Mrs. Nancy Del Prete and Mrs. Eleanor Kehoe as they sort the morning mail. W.B.H.S. is indeed fortunate to have such competent and helpful personnel on the main office staff. Equally pleasant and helpful are Miss Christine Garofano and Mrs. Ruth Houghton who work in the guidance office.

The high school's fine custodial staff includes Mr. John Humanitski, Mr. Tracy Pearsall, head custodian, Mr. Al Ruggiero, and Mr. Dan Lutz. Always willing to do that extra little favor, they are respected by both the students and the faculty. The same is true of genial matrons Mrs. Emma Smalling and Mrs. Alta Krenzien.

Cafeteria staff includes Mrs. Helen DiRienzo, Mrs. Lillian Passela, Mrs. Lilly Stedronsky, Mrs. Mary Mariano, Mrs. Carrie Pavlillo, Mrs. Connie Dempsey, Mrs. Sis Carman, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Winnie Stallard, Mrs. Mary Galletta, Mrs. Elsie Knowles, and Mrs. Kay Prezioso.
